Underwriting - Claims - Recovery - Loss Control

AIG Global Marine is proud to enter the Recreational Marine insurance market. In a market segment that needs additional capacity, AIG has the knowledge, experience, and most importantly, the financial stability to make a difference to both producers and clients.

The combination of our Global Marine Services has resulted in several key service enhancements available to our clients and producers:

- Dedicated, experienced and well-respected team of recreational marine underwriters located around the country.
- Active in the Recreational Marine industry not just insurance. Working to make the Recreational Marine experience better for all consumers.
- Quality coverage at a reasonable price.
- On-line automated quotes, binders and policies for agents.
- Most comprehensive policy available utilizing the full scope of AIG experience and knowledge.
- Streamlined marine claims & subrogation handling administration.

- A proven global claims servicing network of dedicated local marine staff to handle claims on admitted/non-admitted policies.
- A proven global Loss Control network.
- Coordination between Global Marine Service Teams help identify loss trend, monitor problems areas and assist in formalizing loss prevention efforts.

RECOVERY

Experienced in-house team with Domestic and International subrogation capabilities.

Domiciled in New York with easy access to our worldwide network.

- Subrogation capabilities provided by our Recovery Department offer an experienced dedicated team minimizing expenses and maximizing results.
- Subrogation is geared to produce fast and fair recovery results, keeping loss ratios and expenses at a minimum.
- Subrogation and recovery litigation management, using attorneys, surveyors and experts from the Marine network.
