

Prime ExpressSM—Commercial Excess Liability Insurance for Small Business

Market-Leading Excess Casualty Coverage, In Record Time

Introducing Prime ExpressSM, top-quality excess casualty insurance expressly designed for accelerated processing via AIG e-Excess at www.aigexcess.com, the web-enabled quoting and binding system from AIG Excess Casualty®. With the introduction of Prime Express, your ability to bind coverage online is automatically expanded—and the processing of small and mid-sized risks is dramatically expedited.

Strategic coverage design maximizes the number of classes you can bind online and minimizes underwriter referrals.

Rapid Processing Of More Classes Of Business

Prime Express is precision-designed to promote fast, straight-through processing via AIG e-Excess. A streamlined application slashes the time from quotation to binding. Strategic coverage design maximizes the number of classes you can bind online and minimizes underwriter referrals. AIG e-Excess also provides brokers over 650 eligible SIC codes to immediately reserve, quote and bind accounts directly from their offices. Up to $10 million in coverage can be bound online. Higher limits—up to $25 million—are also available, subject to underwriting. AIG e-Excess makes submitting and binding Prime Express policies easier than ever before.

Broad Excess Casualty Coverage

Prime Express is underwritten by AIG Excess Casualty, the nation's leading provider of excess casualty insurance. The policy tracks closely with the ISO®'s primary general liability form and comes with the financial strength and claim expertise policyholders can count on long term.

Prime Express provides strong excess casualty insurance—and strong support in managing and mitigating claims.

Prime Express also includes CrisisResponse®, which provides insureds with crisis management funds and professional expertise to immediately address covered crisis events including temporary housing, travel, psychological counseling, medical and funeral expenses. CrisisResponse also provides 24/7 access to claims specialists to assist in managing a crisis—even before a claim is filed.

Now is the time to take advantage of AIG Small Business[®] Excess Casualty Division!
