

Full Service Loss Control Solutions

In addition to our self service loss control solutions, AIG Programs Loss Control team provides a broad range of full service support options designed to help your organization address a specific need or risk exposure. At no additional cost, our professional staff and independent industry experts will help your organization reduce the opportunity for loss by applying proven practices for accident and incident prevention. Support is personalized for your organization through the evaluation of your prior loss experience and a review of your risk management and safety policies and procedures. Findings are presented in a detailed report that includes customized solutions and tools to help you improve your ability to control losses.

The goal of these services is to share our knowledge of contemporary safety and loss prevention practices with our clients, resulting in safer workplaces, reduced exposures, and fewer claims. Services available are tailored to specific exposures and include, but are not limited to:

We work closely with our Program Administrators to cultivate a preferred service that is beneficial to our insureds, differentiates our program, and demonstrates our specific portfolio knowledge. Our services are customized by program and are designed to be administratively easy to implement for a program of a large group of homogeneous businesses.

AIG is the marketing name for the worldwide property-casualty, life and retirement, and general insurance operations of American International Group, Inc. For additional information, please visit our website at www.aig.com. All products and services are written or provided by subsidiaries or affiliates of American International Group, Inc. Products or services may not be available in all countries, and coverage is subject to actual policy language. Non-insurance products and services may be provided by independent third parties. Certain property-casualty coverages may be provided by a surplus lines insurer. Surplus lines insurers do not generally participate in state guaranty funds, and insureds are therefore not protected by such funds.
