At AIG, dedicated service standards drive everything from timely policy issuance and global premium tracking, to optimal cash flow for captives and smooth processing of claim payments. Streamlined, technology-enabled processes make your experience seamless, while robust reporting keeps you abreast of all aspects of your program. This simpler and more consistent execution of multinational business is how AIG delivers contract certainty and governance our clients can rely on around the world.

AIG’s captive management and fronting capabilities add extraordinary flexibility to how you can choose to manage your multinational risks. Whether you need to insure a risk not covered by the traditional insurance market, or you want to retain risk, but need to provide evidence of insurance, our captive fronting and rent-a-captive programs can provide a custom fit solution. You can also tap our full range of captive services, including feasibility, structuring, formation, and overall captive management.

When you have a loss, our industry-leading claims organization balances a quick local response with centralized coordination anywhere you need it. Technical claim specialists are located in market and deployed within hours of notice, ensuring we hand-deliver advances after catastrophic events, arrange for immediate medical treatment, or secure emergency evacuations. Claim payments are made in-country and in local currencies worldwide.* What’s more, multinational clients can customize their claim handling instructions to ensure consistent protocols across their locations.

These are just some of the ways that AIG’s multinational capabilities can serve your business. For more information ask your insurance broker or risk manager.
