

Emergency Security and Political Evacuation Coverage for WorldRisk®

Keeping employees safe is a critical concern for multinational companies operating overseas. Crisis events can happen anywhere, at anytime, endangering the security of team members working abroad. From political unrest to armed conflict, AIG's Emergency Security and Political Evacuation Endorsement provides unrivaled coverage and resources that help protect employees outside of their home country in the wake of unforeseen events.

AIG helps U.S. and Canadian-based companies manage multinational exposures with WorldRisk®, a flexible package of foreign commercial coverages. The Emergency Security and Political Evacuation endorsement is available with WorldRisk policies that include a Foreign Voluntary Compensation and Employer's Liability coverage part.

The Travel Guard Difference

Security and evacuation services are provided by Travel Guard, AIG's world-leading global assistance operation. 24-hour travel, medical and security assistance is available throughout every time zone with a single phone call.

Travel Guard works closely with locally licensed medical providers and over 300 air ambulance providers, so clients and their employees can receive quality medical care and secure evacuations even in the most remote locations.

Comprehensive Evacuation Coverage

- Unique to AIG, benefits can be paid "on behalf of" the client, rather than by reimbursement only, when arrangements are made by Travel Guard, an AIG company.
- Coverage responds to crisis situations occurring from political unrest, personal threats and armed conflict.
- Coverage does not require a government-issued warning to be activated.
- Participants may be removed from their immediate location, regardless of the nearest port of call.
- Evacuated employees, directors, officers and guests have the option to return to their host country or place of assignment within 14 days if return is safe and permitted.

Coverage Details

- Up to $25,000 of eligible expenses per occurrence paid on behalf of the client when Travel Guard makes arrangements and authorizes all expenses in advance.
- Up to $10,000 of eligible expenses per occurrence reimbursed when Travel Guard does not make arrangements.
- Limits can be increased to $50,000 and $100,000.

AIG is the marketing name for the worldwide property-casualty, life and retirement, and general insurance operations of American International Group, Inc. For additional information, please visit our website at www.aig.com. All products and services are written or provided by subsidiaries or affiliates of American International Group, Inc. Products or services may not be available in all countries, and coverage is subject to actual policy language. Non-insurance products and services may be provided by independent third parties. Certain property-casualty coverages may be provided by a surplus lines insurer. Surplus lines insurers do not generally participate in state guaranty funds, and insureds are therefore not protected by such funds.
