From physician referrals to coordinating medical evacuations, AIG Travel helps insureds’ employees address their medical needs with expediency and expert care by:

- Coordinating medical evacuation arrangements.
- Medical monitoring assistance by trained medical staff while undergoing medical care abroad.
- Coordination of repatriation arrangements for the return of mortal remains in accordance with local governmental procedures.

Emergency Security and Political Evacuation Services
Crisis situations such as political unrest, personal threats and armed conflict can happen anywhere, at any time, endangering the security of employees working abroad. With the purchase of Emergency Security and Political Evacuation coverage, AIG Travel provides security and evacuation assistance to insureds' employees who are faced with a crisis event when outside of their home country.

- Benefits can be paid on behalf of the insured’s employee, rather than by reimbursement, only when arrangements are made by AIG Travel.
- Coverage responds to crisis situations occurring from political unrest, personal threats and armed conflict.
- Coverage does not require a government warning to be issued.
- Employees may be removed from their immediate location and taken to the nearest place of safety.
- Evacuated employees, directors, officers and guests have the option to return to their host country or place of assignment within 14 days if return is safe and permitted.
