

Corporate Markets Coverage for Employees

Health insurance costs continue to rise with higher deductibles, co-pays and premium increases outpacing many household's incomes. Employers are challenged with finding the right solution to help their employees manage these out-of-pocket costs when the unexpected happens. At AIG Corporate Accident & Health Insurance, we know that offering a robust employee benefits package may help employers with retention and recruitment, as well as help satisfy their duty of care obligations for their employees.

Who We Cover?

Our target markets are businesses in all industries, including small and medium market companies, large companies and global corporations, defense contractors, organizations with exposed risk in real estate, manufacturing, services and transport communication and utility companies.

What We Offer:

Business Travel Accident (BTA)
