

Specialty Solutions

Insurance programs available through AIG's Group Benefits business provide coverage for members of organizations (sports organizations, recreational associations, schools, camps, clubs, not-for-profit organizations, etc.) participating in sponsored activities or traveling abroad.

AIG Delivers

- Special risk/participant accident coverage that addresses the inherent risk of injuries that may come about during various activities and may provide an offset to a general liability policy.
- Travel insurance that can help fill gaps in medical plans when traveling internationally, providing 24/7 services to the traveler in need — anything from pre-trip information to a full medical or security evacuation.
- Travel Guard® assistance services, including travel, medical, security, worldwide information, concierge, and identity theft.
- Plan design flexibility and customization for groups of two or more.
- Specialized distribution team to provide valuable sales consultation.
