AIG Public Management Liability

Why AIG

Expertise Matters

ISSUE:
Recent claims trends indicated a client may have heightened D&O exposures that its current insurer would not cover.

SOLUTION:
With our deep understanding of the client’s risk profile and 40+ years of claims expertise, AIG tailored an innovative primary D&O program that addressed the client’s evolving exposures.

BENEFIT:
The client is assured it has a sustainable coverage program to address future risks with a long term insurer partner.

Customized Solutions

ISSUE:
The purchase and sale agreement for a public company going private required the same insurer to provide management liability coverages throughout a complex transaction.

SOLUTION:
As one of the incumbents, AIG quickly provided a seamless solution that solved pre-transaction coverage needs while the company was still public and transitioned coverage to the private company’s primary D&O layer, addressing this unique situation.

BENEFIT:
The client experienced a smooth transaction while maintaining the insurance coverages required.

Claims Expertise

ISSUE:
A major news publication did an exposé of disparate treatment of employees based on gender and race at a publicly traded client company. Soon there were protests, shareholders filed Securities Class Action and Derivative litigation, and the SEC was alerted.

SOLUTION:
AIG quickly coordinated its claims response, which helped the client secure expert securities counsel to address the initial multi-faceted litigation.

BENEFIT:
The client was prepared to address the securities class action with an innovative litigation strategy.

What is AIG Public Management Liability?
