Political Violence and Terrorism Insurance (PVT)

Not all property attacks are covered by Property insurance

Navigating complex threats across multiple countries can be challenging for multinational companies. Acts of violence against assets can severely impact operations and revenue, but not all property attacks are "Terrorism". AIG's Political Violence and Terrorism (PVT) insurance provides Material Damage and Business Interruption cover against widespread acts of violence against property.

By combining Talbot's market leading PVT expertise with AIG's multinational capabilities and global network we offer bespoke global PVT solutions for multinational clients' unique needs.
