

HVTT (HIGH VALUE THEFT TARGETED) RATING SCALE

HVTT (High Value Theft Targeted) is defined as cargo which is high value, can be handled without great difficulty, and can be sold on the illicit market. There are three levels of HVTT cargo. HVTT Level 1 is considered to have the highest level of theft risk thus cargo is at constant theft risk while in transit. The list of examples for each HVTT level presented below can help you to determine the level of cargo you may have. Note: Setting the HVTT level requires consideration of the type of cargo and the risk presented from the countries in the route and the circumstances of transport or storage.

Please contact your Marine Risk Consultant for assistance in determining HVTT levels for your cargo.

Level 1 HVTT include such goods as:
