

SIDE-A DIRECTORS & OFFICERS

Offering

- Side-A Select[®] fills in coverage gaps of primary and excess entity-based directors and officers (D&O) liability coverage programs to protect directors and officers of public or private companies, non-profit organizations or financial institutions against risks faced in executing their corporate responsibilities; coverage is available on a primary basis or complementing AIG's presence on primary and excess entity-based programs
- Value-added coverage enhancements beyond typical Side-A D&O policies include, but are not limited to:
 - Extended protection through a per-claim limit structure and optional coverage for additional dedicated limits for specified individuals
 - Expanded drop-down coverage to apply whenever corporate indemnification and underlying insurance fails or is refused "for any reason"
 - Option for more coverage, such as broader fines and penalties coverage, explicit coverage for plaintiff attorney's fees, enhanced pre-claim inquiry coverage, and the availability of separate defense counsel
- Side-A Match Edge (SAME)[®] structure is available on AIG's Primary D&O policies with any AIG Side-A capacity (lead or excess) from any geography to:
 - Broaden the available Side-A cover within a primary D&O ABC policy, and
 - Match the terms of a Side-A Difference in Conditions policy form with broader coverage extending up follow-form ABC tower
- Bermuda-based placements for all Financial Lines products are available on an excess coverage basis

Appetite

- Broad appetite for Side-A D&O business with the exception of financially distressed companies and cryptocurrency
- Preferred revenue size of $25M annual revenue and up
- Side-A capacity can be deployed on a primary basis, but more often Side-A capacity sits excess of ABC limits
- Long-term partnership with clients is AIG's goal
